Dear Cory:

We are pleased to inform you that your abstract ““If I want to know anything I just Google it”: Older adults’ functional and social leisure activities and technology” has been accepted as a paper presentation for the 15th Canadian Congress on Leisure Research, Engaging Legacies, May 23-26, 2017 at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Kitchener, Ontario.

Please submit a final, formatted abstract to cclr15@uwaterloo.ca by Thursday, December 15, 2016 to be included in the congress proceedings using the following requirements (see sample attached):

- Calibri 12 point font, single-spaced text, left alignment, no paragraph indentations, 500-word maximum abstract text
- Abstract title included at top of first page, left alignment, bold
- Authors listed below title in descending order with institutional affiliation
- No headings
- List of three to five keywords
- Reference list included, one page maximum
- Appendices for figures or tables, two pages maximum
- Contact information for lead author listed at bottom of abstract, left aligned, including mailing address, phone number, and email address

Please note that registration for the Congress is required in order to reserve your place in the program. Details regarding early registration fees and deadlines, the congress program schedule, and other congress information will be sent in a follow-up message when available. You are also encouraged to follow us on Twitter @cclr15_uw.

Should you require an invitation letter for travel purposes, please let us know.

Please do not hesitate to contact me with any questions you may have. Congratulations on your acceptance, and thank you for your participation in what promises to be an outstanding intellectual experience. I appreciate your contribution in co-creating Engaging Legacies in leisure research.

Sincerely,

Troy Glover
